CLASS PLAY IS GIVEN TONIGHT

High School Seniors Present
"Rose o' Plymouth Town"
First Time.

Tonight the first performance of "The Rose o' Plymouth Town" will be presented by the senior class of the high school. Everything is in readiness for the initial interpretation. The new scenery, which was painted by the class of 1914 in order to make its play more realistic, is, although the work of amateurs, a fine production, and is complete in every detail. There are two scenes, an interior and an exterior. The play is given in four acts.

The setting of the play is unique. The acts are all placed in, or near, the home of the captain of the Plymouth, the renowned Miles Standish 2 years after landing of the Pilgrims on the now famous Plymouth Rock. This element of the play, representations being of the 17th century, made it hard to present, and the interpretations of characters are made exceedingly difficult because of the marked difference in customs and manners. The class of 1914, however, has the material with which to make "The Rose o' Plymouth Town" a success, and expects to do so. The cast which was selected by the senior sponsor, Miss Jennie B. Sturgeon, and Miss Wilhelmina Bartheld is well chosen. The selection of the cast was no easy matter for many seniors who have marked dramatic ability were unable to take a place in the play on account of other school affairs.

The drama covers a period of about one year. It is a mixture of romance, and comedy so interwoven that it "keeps things goin' all the time."

The cast of characters:

Miles Standish, Captain of Plymouth—Paul Dahlen.

Garrett Foster, of Weston's men—George Gregory.

John Margenson, a colonist—Roland Greve.

Phillippe de la Noye, a colonist from France—John Freistat.

Miriam Chillingley, cousin to the captain—Mabel Bulger.

Barabara Standish, wife of Miles—Helen Young.

Resolute Story, aunt to the captain—Florence Long.

Rose de la Noye, sister of Phillippe—Hazel Welser.

The synopsis follows:

Act One—Stolen Fruit—An early morning in August.

Act Two—A Maid's Toys—An afternoon in October.

Act Three—The Red Light on the Snow—A night in March.

Act Four—The Better Man—The next afternoon.

San Francisco—Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the south pole, has postponed his expedition to the arctic regions until 1915.

Witherspoon to Head Army.
Washington, April 3.—Major General William W. Witherspoon, assistant chief of staff of the army, has been selected to succeed Major General Leonard Wood as chief of staff at the end of the latter's term, April 22. Brigadier General Hough L. Scott, commanding the troops at Fort Bliss, will be assistant chief of staff. General Wood will assume command of the eastern department.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Manager E. T. Dolly made good with his personally-picked vaudeville bill for the last half of the week at the Empire. It is doubtful if the house has ever had a more uniformly strong and typical variety program. You can't find a weak spot in the list, unless you become critical beyond reasoning in the weighing of a popular-priced vaudeville entertainment. The artistic honors belong to Bernivell Brothers, a duo of high class violinists, who present a sketch entitled "A Night in Venice." They have few equals in the varieties. Robert Henry Hodge, with the assistance of a company of four people, appears as "Bill Blithers, Bachelor." It's a boarding house scene, and three of the women living there make a fuss over Bill, an aged crab, with a dislike for women. Hodge is a splendid character actor, and keeps his audience in continual laughter. Sylvester and Vance are a couple with smart songs and dialogue, having an act far above the average of its style. The Three Juggling Millers are probably the fastest workers with the clubs that you have ever seen. Steel and Mack, in a comedy rolling skating act, open the bill. The clowning member of the team had the house in an uproar from the moment he came before the footlights.

The Shock Absorbing Adjustable Spring

Protects Your Baby's Spine
from Shock or Injury

YOU can not regulate the stiffness of the seat-springs in ordinary baby carriages.

That is why ordinary stiff-springs might be all right for a child two years old but would be too jerky and bumpy for a little mite a week or a month old.

The SIDWAY is the only baby carriage with springs that can be regulated to exactly suit the increasing weight of the baby. And these springs are marvels of gentleness. Whether baby weighs seven or forty pounds, whether you ride him over rough roads or cobblestones, suddenly tilt or turn, baby rides without a jerk or bump, evenly, easily, phantom like. This is because of the SIDWAY adjustable, long-leaf suspension springs.

Sidway
GUARANTEED

This Name on the Frame of Every Genuine Sidway Fold With One Motion

The exceptional bed length and wide leave worlds of room for pillows and quilts and for the unconfined movement of baby's limbs.

The Sidway is the only baby carriage, every part of which is unconditionally guaranteed by the makers against wear and breakage for two years. This includes the Fabrikoid Leather made exclusively for the Sidway, and carrying the additional guarantee of the DuPont Fabrikoid Co., sole makers of Fabrikoid.

The big Sidway factory turns out a Sidway baby carriage every 45 seconds. This enormous output, at a minimum of cost per carriage, gives you a Sidway of the highest quality and value at a price no higher than many unguaranteed carriages. Made in various styles to suit every purse, by the Sidway Mercantile Co., Elkhart, Ind.
